

I'm
Hungry

All the signs are there.

When boys and girls come into Baptist Children's Homes' (BCH) care, it's not difficult for our cottage parents and staff to notice if they have struggled with hunger. The children are mistrusting of adults. They hoard and hide food. They are constantly anxious and worried. This is because their families were too caught up in their addictions and lifestyles to provide their children with even the most basic necessities.

How does the Food Roundup help?

When your church, along with NC Baptists across the state, collect food, supplies and gift cards through the Food Roundup in April, you ensure that we can provide three meals a day plus snacks to everyone we serve. Children's trust is restored! Their worries are vanquished! And the churches' efforts point boys and girls, many who are unchurched, towards a Heavenly Father who loves them. By filling their plates, you fill their hearts.
