Baptist Children's Homes (BCH) provides residential services for children and families in western North Carolina through various convenient locations.

Model of Care: Baptist Children's Homes uses the CARE Model developed by Cornell University. Children And Residential Experiences (CARE): Creating Conditions for Change is designed to support safe environments, strong programmatic elements and a wide-variety of treatment programs and interventions that are trauma-sensitive and developmentally appropriate. It is designed with the child's best interests in mind. CARE is based on the following six principles:

- 1) Developmentally focused,
- 2) Family involved,
- 3) Relationship based,
- 4) Competence centered,
- 5) Trauma informed,
- 6) Ecologically oriented.

Residential Services: Broyhill Home in Clyde is a residential facility for children infant to 21 years old. Family system and group interventions are used. Appropriate referrals are for children who can attend public school and have the ability to benefit from group living and the group process. To access services, contact the Intake Case Manager at 828-627-9254.

Drake Cottage in Franklin is a group home providing individual and family clarification for boys 5 - 21 years old. The facility serves nine youth who are able to attend public school, have the potential to control impulsive behaviors, and who can benefit from and contribute to an intensive group process. To access services, contact the case manager at 828-349-1640.

Truett Home is located in Clay County near Hayesville and serves children in the western counties who are in the custody of Department of Social Services and private placements. It is licensed for six boys and girls ages 6 - 21 who are able to attend public school and would benefit from individual and family clarification. To access services, contact the supervisor/case manager at 828-389-1100.

Transitional Living Program: Blanton Cottage on the Broyhill Home campus in Clyde is a transitional program to help girls ages 16 - 21 become prepared for independence. The transitional living program is designed to assist youth as they transition from dependent, out-of-home care to self-sufficient independence. Strategies to accomplish these goals will be clear and measurable. The length of placement is determined by the time it takes the young person to accomplish her goals. To access these services, contact 828-627-9254.

Family Care: Moody Home in Franklin offers a supportive group home for single mothers 18 years of age and older and their children. The program provides a goal-focused living environment within a cottage setting that is structured to help mothers transition to a successful, independent living situation. To access these services, contact 828-369-9785. After hours, call 828-524-2459.

Foster Care: We are licensed to provide foster homes for level one children in the Western Area as another avenue of assisting the needs of the children within their own community. To access services, call 828-627-9254.

Emergency Care:

Emergency Care facilities provide temporary (maximum 60 days) residential care for families and legal custodians experiencing an immediate crisis which results in the child having no safe or appropriate place to reside. Assessments are provided to enhance further planning.

Carolina Cottage is located at Broyhill Home in Clyde. It is designated to provide emergency care for children, ages infant - 21 years old. To access services, contact the Emergency Care Case Manager at 828-627-9254.

College Student Outreach:

HOMEbase College Ministry outreaches to college students at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee. Through its on-campus center, HOMEbase offers support to children who have aged out of the children's residential and foster care system who do not have adequate family support. It offers physical, emotional and spiritual programs and resources to help students achieve success. Call 828-508-0035 or email jdean@bchfamily.org for more info.

Referrals: Referrals to Baptist Children's Homes are accepted from anyone and can be as simple as an email or a phone call from the individual, departments of social services, pastors, educators, juvenile services, or other family members. However, the legal custodian must be a part of the process and must reside in North Carolina.

Service Area: Western Area Family Services provides services for the following North Carolina counties: Avery, Buncombe, Burke, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Mitchell, Polk, Rutherford, Swain, Transylvania, and Yancey. Other counties will be considered based upon need.

Cost of Services

Cost of service for each of Baptist Children's Homes' western area locations is based on a sliding fee scale for parent or relative custodians. DSS and other social service custodians will pay based on a pre-established purchase of service charge.
